"GLORY BE" SAYS
MAYOR JOHNSON.

Marion's Retiring Mayor Tells of Troubles in Serving the "Dear People."

In the current issue of The Marion Star Editor Johnson prints this unique farewell to the people of his town whom he served six years in the capacity of mayor:

Marion, March 12—A policeman's lot, sang the pirate chasers in the old operatic satire, is not a happy one; but compared to the job of being mayor of this town the "bobbies" of the song were without a care in the opinion of Palmer W. Johnson, just back to private life, after six years as "public footwiper," to use his own expression.

His retirement, Mr. Johnson announces joyfully was by request. The folk indicated that they didn't want him as mayor again by voting him down, and as editor of the Marion Star the ex-mayor promptly shouted editorially, "Glory be."

"One," said Mr. Johnson, commenting on ways of his fellow townsmen during his six years in office and employing the plural tense sacred to editors and kings, "called us a gettoman and was promptly slugged by one who said we were a bum."

"They heaped all the troubles of the universe upon our weary bald pate—and then they lifted all our burden from us by beatin' us at an election—Glory be."

Here are some of the things the ex-mayor noted during his six years as "the public complaint box and footwiper."

"We have settled land disputes, family disputes, dog disputes and some, unfair accounts."

"We have been insulted, disgusted spat upon and imposed upon."

"We have locked up culprits for wrong doing and then envied them their place of limbo."

"We have been blamed for stopped sewers, blocked streets, heavenly showers, poor telephone service and the present price of cotton."

"We have been cursed for cutting down trees and threatened with death for allowing other trees to stand."

"We have been blackmailed for the bum work of one policeman and ostracized for the sterling work of another."

"We have been called a liar until we almost believe it."

"We have become widely known as a grand rascal, an arch criminal, a desperado, a policy-player and a big-footed fool."

"We have been accused of attempting to give the Presbyterian church title to the town hall."

"Mothers accused us of over running the town with dogs and dog owners blamed us with the deluge of babies."

"One bunch wanted hogs in town while another said there were too many hogs already."

"They cursed our name when mosquito time came."

"They yelled at us when the ditches ran over after having been filled to capacity by the good Lord."

"They blamed us for the many peculiarities of their neighbor's chickens, dog, man servant, maid servant and mule."

"When the baby had whooping cough it was because we allowed the north wind to blow and when it had colic it was because we allowed dope fiends to exhaust the supply of paragon at the drug stores."

HARRIS HERNDON SUICIDES

Shot Himself With Rifle at Home in Brightsville Sunday.

Pea Dee Advocate.

Harris B. Herndon shot and killed himself with a 22 rifle at his home in Brightsville Sunday morning. It is thought that financial depression and the use of intoxicants was the cause of the tragedy. Mr. Herndon shot himself in the head in the yard at his home.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. A. Campbell at 11 A. M. Monday and the interment was in the Hubbard cemetery.

Mr. Herndon's wife who was Miss Mary Adams, died about two years ago. He is survived by four daughters and one son.

Was Very Weak

"After the birth of my baby I had a back-set," writes Mrs. Mattie Crosswhite, of Glade Spring, Va. "I was very ill; thought I was going to die. I was so weak I couldn't raise my head to get a drink of water. I took . . . medicine, yet I didn't get any better. I was constipated and very weak, getting worse and worse. I sent for Cardui."
